HELP WANTED: Kingdom Chronicler

I would that it were not so, but I must relinquish the Chronicler post. I have two really good candidates for my replacement, but would like a third to present to my superiors. If you'd like more information on this fun, low-stress, high-profile office, contact me at 303-859-7439 or send e-mail to chronicler@outlands.org.

From the Crown

May the softening days of summer warm your halls and your hearths and these words find you in preparations for the many joyous events to come.

We send our most hearty congratulations and best wishes to Our heirs Sir Kerold Hoegaarden and THL Chiara della Luna. Please lend them the grace and honor that We have been privileged to experience from the good gentles of this fine realm.

His majesty threw down the gauntlet at the Pennsic War as in years past, challenging all the kingdoms of the known world for upcoming Toys for Tots competitions. We ask that all prepare to show the world once again that the hearts and pocket books of the Outlands know no bounds. We have a new traveling sword for the winning kingdom with most toys raised. Lets keep it at home.

On a further note from Pennsic which we neglected to inform you of. Those brave and valiant warriors who took the heavy weapons field for the woods battle were recognized for their valorous and fast footed efforts with the Midrealms' Order of the Dragons Tooth. His majesty Peiter was greatly impressed with our ability to capture 2 of the 3 banners in the initial charge. We would also add our congratulations and let you all know of Our pride in the fine efforts of Our warriors, both heavy and light, that fought with us in the Debatable lands. And, thanks also to those Outlanders who taught classes, volunteered, assisted Us, and entertained many at Pennsic. You were fine representatives for the Outlands in a foreign land.

We will be traveling shortly to the Estrella War Treaty Negotiations in our sister realm of Atenveldt. We wish to thank the War Council for their herculean efforts for Us and the realm in preparing for these negotiations. Their good works have made Our job so much easier and look to provide Our populace with the premium of fun that we have all come to expect from Estrella War. We encourage all good gentles no matter their degree to start their preparations for the War. Muster the troops and start your war practices, so that you can support Our heirs efforts to show the glory that is the Outlands army to the world. If you have interest in helping in the war efforts please contact the War Council your help is needed and most welcome. If you can not attend the event yourself We ask to help those who are attending prepare and swell our numbers there.

Our most heartfelt thanks go out to all of those gentles that have made this reign the joy that it has been. We could not truly have done this position justice without you all. Space here does not allow Us to list you individually here. Please know that you will always be in our hearts and your labors for Us will not be soon forgotten.

In service to the great and mighty Outlands

Iref Rosalind

Irel and Rosalind
Righ and ban-Righ of the Outlands

Our good representatives Conrad and Leah have expressed their intent to step down from the baronial seat. Letters of those who would show their interest in succeeding their Excellencies in sitting the baronial throne should have letters into the Crown, Our Heirs, and the Kingdom Seneschal by November 1st. The Polling is scheduled for November at the Citadels A&S Collegium.

Feast Day of Saint Golias

College of Saint Golias, October 4, A.S. XXXVIII

Site Fee: Adults $5.00 Children 3-12 $3.00 Under 3 No charge
Site&Feast: $10.00 Children 3-12 $6.00 Under 3 No Charge
Please contact Domina Livia (nox@nmt.edu) for reservations before Sept. 20

Unto all the fine gentles of these fair Outlands does the College of Saint Golias send warmest greetings!

Twenty-six years has this fine College dedicated ourselves to the most honorable pursuits of our patron Saint. Many great endeavors have we undertaken in our sacred quest for the finest Wine, Women, and Song. Upon the Fourth day of October we welcome all good gentles to celebrate with us the Feast Day of Saint Golias, and to share the fruits of our labors.

The Celebration will commence at 10 a.m. on the New Mexico Tech Athletics Field (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801) with a game tourney, since it was ever Saint Golias' duty to spread the knowledge of dice, cards and other such challenges of wit and skill. Following the merriment, fierce combat shall commence to determine the new Defender of Saint Golias, as well as our patron saint's First Blade.

The evening would not be complete without feast and frolic, and both shall be had at the New Mexico Tech SAC (801 Leroy Pl. Socorro, NM 87801), although said feast-hall is subject to change at the whim of the Gods.

Alas, our feast, frolic, and tourney sites are dry, therefore, the most honorable pursuits of Saint Golias will be heartily celebrated at the after-revel following (site to be announced at feast).

Directions to the site, a map, a menu, and a full schedule of events will be provided online at www.nmt.edu/~golias/feastday.html

The barony of Unser Hafen will be holding its annual Arts and Sciences Competition/Collegium on Oct 25th at St. John's Lutheran Church. The event will go from 10:00am – 10:00pm.

The theme this year is "Prelude to the Middle Ages". The time period didn't spring out of nowhere, the technology, politics, fashions... they all had to start somewhere, and that's what we'll be looking at in the collegium side of things.

The Classes will focus on cultures, events, and knowledge that affected the shape of the Middle Ages as a distinct period. If you would like to teach a class along these lines, please contact THLady Aildhicinna.

The competition will include the 5 areas of arts and sciences; the fiber arts, the visual arts, the bardic arts, functional arts and the research arts, plus a children's category and a "pre-middle ages" category. Documentation is a plus, but not required. Artisans are welcome to enter as many entries as they wish. There will be a short snack break between classes. A table with food and drink will be set out for those with feast reservations.

The feast is Greek, and is being prepared by Lady Ekaterina Demitriou. Many times at A&S competitions the performing artists are missed by many people due to time conflicts with classes. To avoid this, we are planning to have the artists perform during feast, so that we can all enjoy their work. There will be tables and chairs and floor space for cushions for dining.

For reservations please contact the autocrat, Don Justin (Justin Bruen) 5235 Gulf Stream Ct., Loveland CO 80538 970-593-6300 day, 970-881-2110 at night, or jbruen@frii.com

To teach a class or for more information on the competition; or to volunteer to help with troll, site set up, serving, or clean up, please contact the co-autocrat, THLady Aildhicinna mac Ailpein at 970-472-5981 or blackoakowl@yahoo.com

Directions to site: Take your best route to US 287, turn east onto Elizabeth (right if coming from the south, left if coming from the north), Take third right into the church parking lot, and use the entrance on the South-East side of the building.

al-Barran Court Dancing, Musicians Collegium & Ball

Barony of al-Barran, November 1, A.S. XXXVIII (2003)

St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 1500 Chelwood Park Blvd. NE, Albuquerque NM 87112
Site opens 10:00 am; closes 10:00 pm
Site Fee: $4 for members and $7 for non-members; children and teens, ages 6 to 17, is $3 each, and children age 5 and under are free. There is a family cap of $20.
Please make your checks payable to 'SCA al-Barran.' No pets. Site is dry.

Come one and all to al-Barran's Court Dancing and Musicians Collegium and Ball. Come refresh your memory on court dances you know and learn new ones, including court dances that are being danced inner-kingdom, so that as you travel around the Outlands, you will know the dances at our various balls. There will be a full day of court dance classes from 10 am to 5 pm with a break for lunch on your own. Lemonade and tea will be provided throughout the day. We will have two informal dance tracks--one for the beginner dancers and a concurrent one for the intermediate dancers. From 3 to 5 pm we will also be teaching 'inner-kingdom' court dances, which are court dances that are being currently taught in the various Outlands' baronies and shires and danced at their events, for those who play on the kingdom level and wish to dance at out-of-town events in the Outlands. For those of you wishing to teach court dancing in your shires and baronies, Lady Barbara has created a booklet of dance instruction and a set of court dance music tapes for these dances, to give to you.

Musicians from our al-Barran Musicians group will be meeting with other musicians from 1 to 5 pm to share music, information, etc. They have a great collection of court dance sheet music collected by Lady Lin Shiao Mei (shiao_mei@comcast.net, 505-934-3952), which you can download from her website at http://mywebpages.comcast.net/shiao_mei/crtdance.pdf and are encouraged to print and bring with you to this event. This collection of dance music is based on the dances in Lady Barbara's dance instruction booklet.

We will be having a potluck feast prior to the Ball from 5:15 to 6:15 pm with our Barony donating a meat dish, bread, butter, tea and lemonade. There will be lots of dancing of old and new court dances at our Court Dance Ball from 6:30 to approximately 9:30 pm. We are excited to have our al-Barran Court Dance Musicians playing for part of the ball. Our theme for the ball is 'Come as You are Not' which means you dress in period garb, but in a way that you don't usually dress for your personna. Masks are welcome, but not necessary. We also encourage you to bring a new, unwrapped toy (value of $5.00 or more) to donate to our barony's donation to Toys-for-Tots. Anyone bringing a toy can deduct $2.00 from their gate fee. For our non-dancers, there will be gaming tables for those who wish to play period board games throughout the day. There will also be a supervised children's room from 10 am to 10 pm with activities for the children. We ask that parents donate 2 hours of their time during the day in the room for each of their children who participate and bring a few of their children's favorite toys.

Reservations are not required. Contact Lady Barbara at 505-293-7453, krege@aps.edu if you need crash space. For further information, see the Collegium link at the al-Barran web site at http:\\www.al-barran.org Directions: From the West on I-40 take the 7th exit after passing through the I-25 interchange and turn left onto Tramway (from the East on I-40, take the 1st Albuquerque exit and turn right onto Tramway). All those not fighting are invited to wear their best and brightest to contribute to the festive atmosphere.

Greetings, good gentles: The season is upon us, it is time for us bring joy into children's hearts. It 's time for us to collect toys for the underprivileged children of these lands! It's time for Toys for Tots!

Once again, the barony of al-Barran will be presenting this event in conjunction with the Marine Corp Reserve's Toys for Tots campaign. Last year, we collected over 1,000 toys. This year, lets double or triple that amount.

We will have the heavy weapons Children's Champion and rapier Defender of the Children tournaments at the event. Test your mettle and fight to become this year's champion! For the children, we will have a Children's Quest. Details in next month's article.

The Toy Maker Competition! For this year's event we're not just going to collect toys, we're going to make them! There will be separate competitions for children and adults; the populous will decide on the best toys. Make a pint size trebuchet. Make period-style doll garb. Or create something totally unexpected. The rules are that it must be in a period style, (although not necessarily a toy found in period) it must be recognizable as a toy, and it must be appropriate for children. Use your imagination - it'll help you win the competition.

And don't forget to bring toy donations! Once again, we are going to have a toy collection competition. The household (or group) that brings in the most toys, and the individual who brings in the most toys will win prizes!

Directions to the site: Take your best route to the intersection of I-25 and I-40 in Albuquerque. Go east of the intersection on I-40 to the Carlisle exit, which is the first exit. 1200 East College Drive - Cheyenne WY
Fees: Adult, $10.00; ages 6 - 12, $5.00; under 6, free; Family cap, $30.00

Invitation to Hunter's Feast

Fine and fair the foodstuffs brought forth by our land - grains from the farmer, grown by hoe and hand, wild fruits found and gathered, or herdsman's slaughtered beast -
but none can compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Oats and wheat are splendid for making bonny bread;
cabbages and turnips both help to keep us fed;
carrots, kale and onions of foods are not the least,
but only serve to garnish our noble Hunter's Feast.

Apples crisp and ruddy make pies and cider fine;
berries red and purple and grapes make splendid wine;
beer and mead make merry soldier, prince and priest -
but these but serve to sweeten our noble Hunter's Feast.

Eggs and milk and cheeses, creamy, salt and sweet,
are excellent as staples and pleasant oft to eat;
chickens, ducks and peacocks are loved in west and east,
but still cannot compare with our noble Hunter's Feast.

Cow's meat for the Saxons, pig's meat for the Celts, mutton for the Normans, and goat's meat for all else -
every clan and nation has each their favorite beast, but higher still they value our noble Hunter's Feast.

Salmon full of wisdom, antelope and hare, wildfowl from the marshes, deer and boar and bear - these make up our menu, so when my words have ceased come and join our company at our noble Hunter's Feast.

From the Earl Marshal

Greetings Outlanders,

The North winds grow cooler as the long summer warmth fades quickly away. It's that time again to begin preparations for War! Our neighbors across all our borders are beginning to hone their axes, sharpen swords and band shields. We must also do the same and set aside personal pursuits on the tourney field for group training on the field of battle. The Outlands has been long known for its excellence in warfare, let us continue to strive to be at our best!

As you read these letters, our King and His Heir will be preparing for negotiations to ensure each Outlander is promised his/her fill of combat in a variety of scenarios and settings on the fields of Estrella. I am most confident that our Crown will secure a hoast of wonderful fighting scenarios that will test each and every warrior's mettle.

Ensure you armor is ready in preparation, re-tape swords and spears, look good on the field with fine war tabards, and prepare far in advance this year (like we all say we will).

Get your blue cards and green cards up-to-date. If you wish to help at war with any marshal aspects contact me sooner than later. If you wish to be a marshal at war, begin training now and get that armored combat marshal (ACM) initialed early. I look forward to helping all prepare.

As always, be safe and have fun.
LaVan

From the Minister of Arts and Sciences:

Greetings Fair Outlanders - Well, as the weather cools and winter approacheth, now is the time for a resurgence of Arts & Sciences activity! The Kingdom A&S Competition will not be until next April and I hope all of you are using the extra time to polish up spectacular entries. I would like to begin the plea NOW for those willing to judge entries. Obviously, it's hard to commit now, not knowing yet where the event will be held, but for those of you that would normally attending anyway, please consider acting as a judge in your artistic specialty - please contact me if you are interested.

Estrella approaches! If you need help or have questions about entries, need to coordinate sending up an entry if you can't attend, etc. etc. NOW is the time to start thinking about it! By the time you read this, I believe the competition rules and guidelines will be available online at the Estrella website. If you are unable to access it, please contact me and I will send you the information.

Lastly (sorry to continue beating this poor, expired horse): I am STILL trying to put together an A&S issue of the Outlandish Herald. I have put it off time and time again for lack of articles. I have three or four articles and scads of lovely artwork for it from THL Sigmund Shadowhawk, but alas, I need more articles or there is no point. Please contact me if you are interested.

Until next month,

Toujours a vos ordres,
Margaret

From the Kingdom MOL

As we approach the fall and tourney season draws to a close; we prepare for WAR!! Estrella War is coming in February, and now is the time to begin thinking about updating your authorizations before they expire.

If you find that those expiration dates are near, renew that membership (usually takes a couple of months for Corp. to return the cards) and find a local authorizing marshal to renew your authorizations BEFORE they expire.

The Earl Marshal has put into place a new authorization format for armored combat. The MoL office is making this list available to help speed up the process of sign in at tournaments. This list DOES NOT replace showing your cards to the MIC or the MoL if requested. Please make sure to have your cards available if asked for. Talk to your local Armored Combat Authorizing Marshall about this new list.

If you are an authorizing marshall or a MoL; you can use the Minister of the Lists web pages to report authorizations, turn in tourney reporting, print a list of current authorizations. You can find them by entering the officers home page: http://www.outlands.org/officers.html and clicking on the Minister of the Lists link.

In service to the Outlands,
Lady Seuilla DeCordoba

What happens to the Award recommendation?

Part two of a two part article by Countess Elizabeth O'Byrne

Gracious greetings & salutations unto those good gentles who continue to find these missives, enlightening or entertaining. Which ever it may be.

Perhaps by now you have found a muse to inspire your writings, maybe even talked to a local herald about what are ALL the different awards that your Barony or this Kingdom has to offer. You may have even found the time to subtly and with great discretion find out both the mundane name and membership number of your intended target… I mean muse… did I mention that discretion makes this all the more fun. They'll never know what hit them or who was in the plot, until it's too late. If you're subtle!

So your letter is prepared, the loyal and dedicated horsemen of the post have taken it into the sunset to be delivered to the Nobility of choice forthwith! Your muse should receive their personalized calligraphic and illuminated scroll from Their noble hands at the very next event. This Saturday night and you will be there front and center to see all the action. Hmmm…I did mention that we were going to discuss some myths last time, didn't I?

MYTH Number One ~ Every person who has a letter of recommendation sent to a Crown or Coronet on their behalf will receive the exact award they were recommended for post haste, forthwith, immediately this weekend.

Reality ~ NOPE. It just doesn't happen that way. The Crown and Nobility of this Kingdom has the right and privilege to recognize and acknowledge whom they chose with the award they choose. Or they can choose not to acknowledge the person in anyway what so ever. There are of course exceptions, there always are! But that's for a different article.

MYTH Number Two ~ Every person who gets an award in this Kingdom receives with that award a personalized calligraphic and illuminated scroll.

Reality ~ NOPE. Our scribes are truly extraordinary but there is no law requiring them to dedicate 25 hours of their time (average per scroll) so that the award recipient can go home with a fabulous piece of artwork.

MYTH Number Three ~ Your muse should receive their personalized scroll from Their Noble hands at the very next event.

Reality ~ NOPE. Did I mention that while our Kingdom scribes pride themselves on not sending out Photocopied duplicated scrolls they are also not required by law or Crown to produce ANY scrolls at all. Each beautiful hand made scroll is a gift from the artist and takes time and effort…

What kinda time? Excellent question. Let's figure it out shall we by tracking your letter of recommendation through the system…

Your letter hits the mail ~ two to four days until the Crown receives it.

The Crown or Nobility need time to peruse, research and confirm an award for your muse if they so choose to give it ~ an additional week (Hey now… The Crown and Nobility of this fine Kingdom have lives too).

They requests scrolls from the Kingdom Scribe ~ two days (phone tag).

The Kingdom Scribe needs time to assign the scroll ~ Lets give her a week to find the perfect scribe, remember yours is but one of the many scrolls she is trying to assign and maybe she has a life too. Who knew!

The scribe confirms the assignment ~ two days (again with the phone tag). The scribe needs time to secretly research and personalize the scroll. They may even need to consult with the heralds on device information. Yicks ~

Have you ever trying to get some information about a person without them getting suspicious… Brutal… Anyway let's give them a week just for that.

So now your personal scribe has everything they need to make your scroll… so 25 hours later it's done ~ right! Ahmmm… wrong, another myth!

Again with the life thing. Work, dinner, homework with kids, laundry, 1.5 hours of scroll time after the kids are in bed (Yes… this does includes potty and caffeine breaks). But wait what about weekends? Yippee it can be done by Saturday night, unless of course their children have lives and they would like to spend some time with their families. OK… ok… sigh…

So let's say an additional 6-8 hours scroll work time on the weekend.

Total time to complete average scroll ~2 weeks, give or take a few days.

So your scroll is now completed and ready to be delivered (an additional two to four days) to the appropriate nobility to be signed and dated and forthwith placed into the hands of it most worthy recipient, and it only took a total of 6 – 7 weeks. But wait … your muse can't seem to make that event, that weekend. Something about they have a life? Arrrgghh!!!!

And you did every thing right! You were courteous to the Crown and the hard working scribes, sent your wonderful letter of recommendation a full eight weeks in advance of that event, knowing that it would be so perfect for them to receive an award there and they can't make it! Sorry, it happens.

Hmm…But there is another possibility… what if the Crown didn't choose to acknowledge your muse for one reason or another. They are not required to tell you one way or the other. Where did your letter go? Well, it is a tradition that all unacknowledged letters of recommendation are past on to the Heirs of the Kingdom or Barony for their future use and consideration.

So what do you do now? Are you a patient person who can trust in the game knowing that your muse and their extraordinary talents will someday be seen for what they are? Or are you the type of person who will continue to find new beauty and depth in your muse and continue to share that vision with your Crown? Whomever you are… perhaps you now have a better understanding of those things we sometimes take for granted.

The Scrolls, the physical acknowledgements of extraordinary deeds, are in and of themselves something rare and extraordinary. If you have a scroll you now know the time and effort that went into receiving it, if you have yet to receive a scroll when it is your time to be acknowledged hopefully you will remember to thank a scribe for gracious gift of all their hard work.

As a member of our tribe please choose to continue to share your vision and insights of those who inspire you, for they add depth and beauty to your Kingdom and know that your Crown and Gracious Nobles are wealthier for these gifts of knowledge.

Enjoy, life is short

--Elizabeth O'Byrnne

The OH is printed presently with an 8-point font that allows for approximately 300 words in a one-half (1/2) page article, and 600 words in a one (1) page article. All event articles are allowed three (3) showings in the Outlandish Herald, one (1) of which MUST be the month of the event (i.e. A June event MUST run in the June OH). The other two publication months are typically the two months preceding the event. An autocrat may request publication more than two months in advance, but that publication will count against the two (2) publication limit. Additional printings may be purchased at the current advertising rates. Generally, event announcements must fit on 1/2 page in months prior to the event, and 1 page the month of the event. Announcements exceeding this size may be trimmed to fit. Look for this to be enforced RIGOROUSLY beginning with the November 2003 issue! Optionally, if you wish to exceed this limit, you can purchase space at current advertising rates. Where possible, please provide the Kingdom Chronicler's office with a prior month article, and a month of article fitting the above criteria for publication.
